- c. garnishing the wages of North Carolina consumers following a judgment;

and any person the consumer expressly requests be contacted, unless that contact is prohibited by state law;

- iii. the contact must not:
 - (1) disclose that the consumer owes any debt;

- vi. the limitations of this subparagraph do not apply to contacts made by order of a court of competent jurisdiction or as reasonably necessary to effectuate a postjudgment judicial remedy;

e. for 5 years from the Effective Date, charging any third-party account (credit card, debit card, bank account, prepaid card, or other form of payment) without the third-party's written authorization for such a charge, including the number of times the third-party is authorizing payment from the account; and

f. collecting, selling, or transferring for collection any portion of the debt that is refunded or credited under this Order.

20. Defendants and their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and all other persons who are in active concert or participation with them and who have actual notice of this Order, must:

a. within 60 days of the Effective Date, adjust all balances owed by each Affected Consumer in accordance with the redress calculations specified in paragraph 26 of this Order;

b. within 60 days of the Effective Date, send Bureau-approved notices to all Affected Consumers for whom balance adjustments are made under subparagraph 20.a. to inform them of the credit resulting from this Order; the notices must be submitted to the Bureau for approval within 30 days of the Effective Date;

c. within 60 days of the Effective Date, furnish to all credit reporting agencies the adjustment to the balances owed by the Affected Consumers as a result of this Order;

d. within 60 days of the Effective Date, take any steps necessary to amend or stop payment arrangements previously entered into with any Affected Consumer for payments no longer necessary after the adjustment to the balances owed by Affected Consumers as a result of this Order;

e. within 60 days of the Effective Date, implement procedures to prevent Double Payments, including:

- i. prohibiting collection of payment from a consumer's Back-up Account until the seventh (7th) day after the payment due date, unless the consumer's express consent is obtained after the due date passes with no payment or with an incomplete payment; and

- i. requiring the third-party's written consent for a charge, that describes the procedure for withdrawing the third-party's authorization and includes the number of times the third-party is authorizing payments from their account (credit card, debit card, bank account, prepaid card, or other form of payment);
- ii. providing written confirmation by mail or electronic means (e-mail) to those third-parties stating the amount and recipient of the payment and the procedure for withdrawing the third-party's authorization for future payments:

- h. ensure that all contract provisions related to electronic fund transfers include the disclosure of information required by EFTA, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1693c, 1693e, and Regulation E, 12 C.F.R. § 1005.10(b).

21. If Defendants sell all or part of the "Affected Debt," Defendants must:

- a. obtain the purchaser's express written agreement to comply with the provisions of this Order with respect to the Affected Debt; and

B. Order to Pay Redress

22. Judgment for monetary relief is hereby entered in favor of the Bureau and the States and against the Defendants in the amount of $2,596,124.14 plus the amount of redress due to Virginia Affected Consumers under paragraph 26, the total to be calculated within 7 days of the Effective Date.

23. Within 21 days of entry of this Order, Defendants must pay to the Bureau, by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent, and according to the Bureau's wiring instructions, $373,279.06 plus the amount to be refunded to Virginia Affected Consumers under paragraph 26, in satisfaction of the non-credit portion of the judgment as ordered in paragraph 22 and for the purpose of providing redress to Affected Consumers, as required by this section B. This amount shall be the total of the amounts required to be refunded to Affected Consumers pursuant to subparagraphs 26.a. and 26.b. of this Order. Defendants must relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid to the fullest extent permitted by law, and no part of the funds may be returned to Defendants.

24. Any funds received by the Bureau in satisfaction of this judgment will be deposited into a fund or funds administered by the Bureau, or to the Bureau's agent according to applicable statutes and regulations, to be used for redress for Affected Consumers, including but not limited to refund of moneys, restitution, damages, or other monetary relief, and for any attendant expenses for the administration of any such redress.

25. Defendants must provide all information that the Bureau or its agent may require to locate all Affected Consumers and to administer redress.

26. Redress to Affected Consumers against whom a default judgment was entered in a Distant Forum Action between July 1, 2011, and December 31, 2013, will be calculated as follows:

a. for Affected Consumers with judgments that have been fully satisfied: a refund to the Affected Consumer equal to 30% of the total collected from the Affected Consumer from the date of the judgment to the time of satisfaction;

b. for Affected Consumers with judgments that have been partially satisfied: a reduction of the Affected Consumer's Total Outstanding Balance (default judgment amount plus accrued interest) in an amount equal to (i) 30% of the total collected from the Affected Consumer between the date of the judgment and November 1, 2014, plus (ii) 30% of the Total Outstanding Balance as of November 1, 2014; if the sum of those amounts exceeds the Total Outstanding Balance, the difference will be refunded to the Affected Consumer; and

c. for Affected Consumers with no payments on their judgments: a 30% reduction of the Affected Consumer's Total Outstanding Balance as of November 1, 2014.

27. If Defendants fail to identify all Affected Consumers to the Bureau or if Defendants make any error in the calculations under paragraph 26, within 14 days of learning of the omission or error, Defendants must notify the Bureau of it and must adjust any Affected Consumer's outstanding balance and provide any additional funds to the Bureau required to satisfy the redress ordered herein.

28. If the Bureau determines, in its sole discretion, that additional redress to Affected Consumers is wholly or partially impracticable, or otherwise inappropriate, or if funds remain after the additional redress is completed, the Bureau may use any remaining funds for equitable relief, including consumer-information remedies, as determined to be reasonably related to the violations described in the Complaint. Any funds not used for equitable relief will be deposited in the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Defendants will have no right to challenge any actions that the Bureau or its representatives may take under this paragraph.

29. Defendants may not condition the payment of any redress to any Affected Consumer under this Order on that Affected Consumer waiving any right.

C. Civil Money Penalties

30. Under section 1055(c) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c), taking into account the factors in 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c)(3), judgment for a civil penalty is entered against Defendants, jointly and severally, in the amount of $100,000.

31. This civil money penalty is imposed based on the violations of law described in the Complaint.

32. Within 10 days of the Effective Date, Defendants must pay the civil money penalty by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent in compliance with the Bureau's wiring instructions. Defendants must relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid to the fullest extent permitted by law, and no part of the funds may be returned to Defendants.

33. The civil money penalty paid under this Order will be deposited in the Civil Penalty Fund of the Bureau as required by section 1017(d) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5497(d).

34. Defendants must treat the civil money penalty paid under this Order as a penalty paid to the government for all purposes. Regardless of how the Bureau ultimately uses those funds, Defendants may not:

- a. claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction, tax credit, or any other tax benefit for any civil money penalty paid under this Order; or
- b. seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including but not limited to payment made under any insurance policy, for any civil money penalty paid under this Order.

35. To preserve the deterrent effect of the civil money penalty, in any Related Consumer Action, Defendants may not argue that Defendants are entitled to, nor may Defendants benefit from, any offset or reduction of any compensatory monetary remedies imposed in the Related Consumer Action because of the civil money penalty paid in this action (“Penalty Offset”). If the court in any Related Consumer Action grants a Penalty Offset, Defendants must, within 30 days after entry of a final order granting the Penalty Offset, notify the Bureau, and pay the amount of the Penalty Offset to the U.S. Treasury. Such a payment will not be considered an additional civil money penalty and will not change the amount of the civil money penalty imposed in this action.

D. Default or Delinquency

36. In the event of any default on Defendants’ obligations to make payment under this Order, interest, computed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, will accrue on any outstanding amount not paid from the date of default to the date of payment, and will immediately become due and payable.

37. Under 31 U.S.C. § 7701, Defendants must furnish to the Bureau their taxpayer identifying numbers, which may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order.

E. Reporting Requirements

38. For 5 years from the Effective Date, Defendants must notify the Bureau of any development that may affect compliance obligations arising under this Order, including but not limited to a dissolution, assignment, sale, merger, or other action that would result in the emergence of a successor company; the creation or dissolution of a subsidiary, parent, or affiliate that engages in any acts or practices subject to this Order; the filing of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding by or against Defendants; or a change in Corporate Defendants' names or addresses. 40. Within 120 days of the Effective Date, and again one year after the Effective Date, Defendants must submit to the Enforcement Director an accurate written compliance-progress report ("Compliance Report"), that, at a minimum:

41. After the one-year period, and for a period of 5 years, Defendants must submit to the Enforcement Director additional Compliance Reports within 30 days of receiving a written request from the Bureau.

F. Order Distribution and Acknowledgement

42. Within 7 days of the Effective Date, Defendants must submit to the Enforcement Director an acknowledgment of receipt of this Order, sworn under penalty of perjury.

43. Within 30 days of the Effective Date, Defendants must deliver a copy of this Order to each of its board members and executive officers, as well as any persons with responsibilities related to the injunctive relief described in Section A of this Order, whether they are managers, employees, service providers, or other agents and representatives.

45. Defendants must secure a signed and dated statement acknowledging receipt of a copy of this Order, ensuring that any electronic signatures comply with the requirements of the E-Sign Act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001 et seq., within 30 days of delivery of the Order, from all persons receiving a copy of this Order under this Section.

- b. all contracts and credit applications entered into with consumers.

47. Defendants must make the documents identified in Paragraph 46 available to the Bureau within 30 days upon the Bureau's request.

Defendants must provide all requested information in its or its agents' possession or control, submitted as a sworn statement under penalty of perjury, within 21 days of receiving a written request from the Bureau.

50. For a period of 5 years from the Effective Date, Defendants must cooperate fully with the Bureau in this matter and in any investigation related to or associated with the conduct described in the Complaint. Notwithstanding this release, the Bureau or the States may use the practices alleged in the Complaint in future enforcement actions against the Defendants or their affiliates to establish a pattern or practice of violations or the continuation of a pattern or practice of violations or to calculate the amount of any penalty. This release does not preclude or affect any right of the Bureau or the States to determine and ensure compliance with the Order, or to seek penalties for any violations of the Order.
